

IPU Library newsletter – February 2023

Happy new year to you all from the library. We hope your year has started well. Enjoy reading what has been happening in the library

Summer term library hours:

Monday – Thursday 8.30 am – 6.00 pm
Friday 8.30 am - 5.00 pm
Saturday 1.00 pm – 3.00 pm

TESOL display:

Come over to the library to see our display of TESOL books – you are very welcome to get these books issued.

Board game mornings in the library are starting soon!!!!

On Wednesday the 22nd of February we are planning to have our first board games morning in the library from 10.00 am to 11.30 am. With this in mind we are currently purchasing some new games so please come along and give them a go!! We plan to run this every second Wednesday so that it alternates with Tiki tours. Reminder emails will be sent out nearer the time.

Student volunteer librarians

Four new students have joined the library recently as volunteers. We welcome Anelin, Cristina, Hiroki and Ikuko. They are all very keen and we are so grateful for their help. As well as general help with issuing, returning, shelving and other library duties they will continue with the project of scanning the IPU archives.

Exemplar final projects:

Below are the final projects which have been added to the library collection both in print and online formats. A reminder that over 30 final research projects are available online at <https://cdm20079.contentdm.oclc.org/>. Remember to click on the blue box in the right hand corner to read the full text.

Congratulations to all these students:

New books in the library:

Strategic corporate social responsibility : a holistic approach to responsible and sustainable business / Haski-Leventhal. David, 2022

This book provides a comprehensive and integrated overview of the field of CSR that brings today's tools and standards to the fore and should prove an invaluable classroom asset.

ETpedia pronunciation / Hughes, John, 2022

This book brings together a collection of ideas, tips and classroom activities for a one-stop, quick and easy reference. It has been written for English language teachers who would like to learn new ways to teach pronunciation whether you are working in a classroom or online.

All the lovers in the night / Kawakami, Mieko, 2022

Fuyuko Irie is a freelance copy editor in her mid-thirties. Working and living alone in a city where it is not easy to form new relationships, she has little regular contact with anyone other than her editor. This book is acute and insightful, entertaining and engaging; it will make readers laugh and it will make them cry.

Man in Red Bandana Full Video (01:20:16)

Man in red bandana

This is the story of sacrifice, selflessness and legacy. It tells the story of Welles Remy Crowther. At the age of 24 on 9/11 Welles was tragically killed when the South Tower collapsed. During the 56 minutes that the tower burned Welles performed extraordinary acts of courage including carrying a woman down 17 flights of stairs. For months after the disaster his acts of bravery were unknown to the world. Eight months after the disaster his parents learned about how their son spent his last hour due to an ordinary object – a red bandana.....

Capturing Grace Full Video (01:00:29)

Capturing Grace

It seems like two separate realms. One is occupied by acclaimed dancers from Brooklyn's Mark Morris Dance Group, the other by people with Parkinson's disease. This documentary is about what happens when those two worlds intersect. It is filmed over the course of a year and reveals the hopes, fears and triumphs of this newly formed community as they work together to create a unique performance.

Generation A: Autism and the Arts Full Video (01:02:21)

Generation A: Autism and the arts

Autism: disability or gift? This documentary looks at the daily challenges faced by young people in the autism spectrum and what creative therapies and art programmes are available to stimulate the brain and help young people with autism reach their highest potential. Through 8 compelling portraits Generation A celebrates the talents of youths with autism and provides them with a platform to speak openly about their struggles as well as their hopes and dreams.

The Global Pandemic Through the Lens of Trauma Full Video

(01:02:20)

The global pandemic through the lens of trauma

In this video seminar Dr Bessel van der Kolk, a physician who specializes in posttraumatic stress explains how we can best support children and adolescents who have been adversely affected by recent events – specifically how to reintegrate back into school and structure after a prolonged and uncertain absence. He teaches how to help young people achieve emotional safety and offers tips for keeping them from re-living past trauma.
